State-wide leadership award goes to local 4-H Club member

A West Sacramento boy has won a state-wide award for distinguished leadership.

Alexzander Gaither is a sixth-grade student at Phoebe Hearst Elementary School, where he is a member of the Gifted and Talented Education Program (GATE).

He is an active, award-winning member of the West Sacramento 4-H Club and was named 4-H student of the month for Yolo County in April. Other interests include the Boy Scouts, Hot Wheels Race Club, baseball, basketball and playing trumpet in school bands.

"I enjoy swimming, roller blading, model cars, camping, slot car racing and traveling with my family," said Alexzander.

Alexzander won this year's "Nicholas Green Distinguished Student Award" for California, set up by the parents of Nicholas, age seven, who was killed in a shooting while his family visited Italy in 1994. Parents Maggie and Reg Green decided at the time of their son's death to donate his organs to seven Italians waiting for transplants.

They later set up the Nicholas Green Foundation and Nicholas Green Fund, awarding scholarships to high-ability high school seniors and college students.

Alexzander Gaither will receive a $500 U.S. Savings Bond earmarked for one distinguished third-to-sixth grader in California. He was selected largely due to his accomplishments and leadership in West Sacramento 4-H.

Inspected & cited

Personnel from three government agencies conducted a day-long preliminary inspection of the Green Acres Mobile Home Park on F St. on Friday, July 13, before handing the park "numerous" citations for "immediate hazardous conditions," said the Yolo County District Attorney's office.

The violations included raw sewage leaks, unsafe electrical and gas hookups, and improperly stored empty refrigerators. Investigators also handed out more than 20 notices regarding inoperative motor vehicles.

The inspection was conducted by the district attorney's community prosecution program, the police department's Code Enforcement Unit, and the state Housing Department.

The housing department plans further inspections, and "various legal actions against the nonresident owner are being considered," said the D.A.'s office.

"All agencies involved are primarily concerned with the safety of the park residents, especially the children living there, and ensuring that the landlord complies with all laws requiring him to supply tenants with safe and healthy living conditions."

Deputies arrest Yolo official —

A Yolo County Deputy Public Guardian was arrested last Wednesday for allegedly removing funds from the bank account of a conservatee of the guardian's office, announced Yolo County District Attorney David Henderson.

John Hartmire, a 44-year old Woodland resident, pleaded not guilty to 11 felony charges connected with the allegations Friday in Yolo County court.

The guardian's office became aware of "unexplainable" withdrawals from a client's bank account on July 16. Public Guardian Cass Sylvia contacted the Yolo Co. Sheriff's Dept. "when inquiries into the matter revealed potential criminal misconduct," said the D.A.'s office.

"In light of Mr. Hartmire's arrest, he has been placed on administrative leave from the position as Deputy Public Guardian," said Sylvia. "I have the highest standards of conduct for the members of my office because of our considerable public responsibilities. Any employee that takes advantage of a position of trust and misappropriates funds from a person that he or she is legally obligated to protect, deserves to be criminally prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

Among other duties, the public guardian's office handles conservatorships for those unable to care from themselves.

The D.A.'s office said that the total dollar amount involved in the case has not yet been determined, and other possible victims are being sought as the investigation continues.

'National Night Out' against crime is set to return to West Sac on Tuesday, Aug. 7

From Officer Amy Weirich
West Sacramento Police Dept.

On Tuesday, Aug. 7, neighborhoods throughout West Sacramento are invited to join with thousands of other communities nationwide for the "18th Annual National Night Out" crime and drug prevention event. National Night Out will involve 9,500 communities from every state as well as U.S. territories, Canadian cities and military bases around the world.

The event is sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch, and sponsored locally by the City of West Sacramento.

From 6 to 10 p.m., residents are urged to lock their doors, turn on their outside lights and spend the evening outside with neighbors and police. Many neighborhoods will host block parties, cookouts, parades, police visits, flashlight walks, contests, youth activities and anti-crime rallies.

Visits from police or fire personnel, Friday Night Live representatives, the C.H.P., the city recycling division, the parks mascot or McGruff the Crime Dog can be arranged by calling 372-2461 ext. 313.

Citizens appeal planners approval of 4th St. complex

The West Sacramento Planning Commission on Thursday gave a thumbs-up to the Metro² Riverwalk housing project near 4th and C streets, but a thumbs-down to a proposed apartment complex at Sacramento Ave. and Douglas St.

The decision in favor of the two-acre, 58-unit housing complex near the I St. Bridge has been appealed by 16 residents, including Washington neighborhood businesswoman Julia Harrington, who objects to the density of the development and to possible problems with parking and other impacts.

The city council will listen to the appeal on Aug. 8.

The 192-unit apartment complex proposed by Swett Equity for the Sacramento Ave. site was voted down, overturning a city staff recommendation. The site is currently planned for community commercial use, and would have required rezoning.

As of yesterday, no appeal of the denial had been received by city hall.

Both projects had earlier received the approval of the city's housing advisory commission.

Thomson pushes 'consensus-building' education initiative

From the Office of Assemblywoman Helen Thomson

The California State Senate narrowly approved a $101 billion spending package yesterday when a consensus building public education funding initiative, by Assemblywoman Helen Thomson (D-Davis), helped persuade two Republican Senators to vote for the state budget plan. The Senate approval ends a long stalemate which left the state without a spending plan for nearly a month.

The budget deal provides $40 million as a first installment toward the Fairness in Education Funding Act, Thomson's plan to bring every school district's funding rate up to a level currently enjoyed by just 10 percent of the students in the state.

Assemblywoman Thomson introduced AB 193 early in the legislative year to implement school funding equalization. Her bill picked up remarkable momentum and bi-partisan support in the legislative process, garnering more than four dozen co-authors and unanimous support of the state Assembly.

In a last minute budget deal to break the budget impasse the Senate "gutted and amended" another bill that was further along in the legislative process to include Thomson's AB 193 language. The Senate also inserted a $40 million appropriation as a first installment in the $400 million equalization process, and a stated intent to complete that process within five years if funding is available.

"I am thrilled that the Senate acknowledged this critical issue of equity," said Assemblywoman Thomson. "The current school funding disparities are patently unfair and skew both the competition and the public school's ability to serve the children of California."

Current inequities in funding between districts range up to hundreds of dollars per student. This gap is largely the result of past legislation that intended to award districts monetarily for reducing their excused absence rates. While the policy itself was effective, an unintended consequence of that prior legislation punished districts with above average attendance rates by reducing their funding. AB 193 was introduced to level the fiscal playing field for virtually all of California's school districts.

"There is no legitimate reason why some student classrooms are funded thousands of dollars below others, and thanks to Assemblywoman Thomson's efforts, the state is now addressing this inequity," said Ron Bennett, President of School Services of California, a consulting and advocacy firm which serves nearly every school district in the state. "We are also thrilled with the Senate's commitment to finish out this process within the next five years."

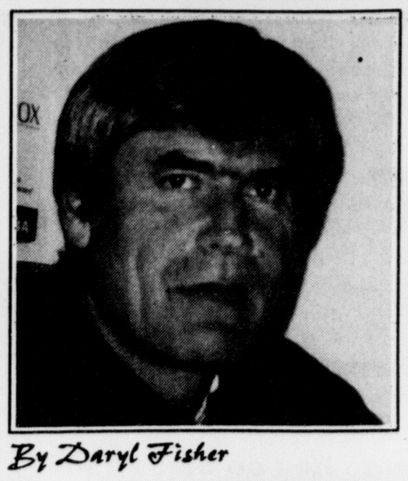
My Back Pages



By Daryl Fisher

 A woman woke in the middle of the night to find her husband missing from her bed. In the stillness of the night, she could hear a muffled sound coming from downstairs. She went down into the living room and looked all around, but still could not find her husband. She finally descended into the basement, where she found her husband crouched in a corner, facing the wall and weeping.

"What's wrong with you, dear?" she asked with genuine concern.

"Do you remember when your father caught us fooling around when you were still a teenager?"

"Yes."

"And do you remember when he gave me those two choices; I could marry you or spend the next 20 years in prison?"

Baffled, she said, "Yes, I remember. So?"

"I would have gotten out today."

 A woman's husband had been slipping in and out of a coma for several weeks. She stayed by his side every day, and then one evening he woke and whispered for her to come closer.

As she neared herself to him, he whispered, eyes full of tears, "You know what? You have been with me through all the bad times. When I got fired from those six jobs, you were always there to support me. When both of the businesses I tried to start failed, you were right at my side. When I got mugged that night on the way home from the theater, you held my hand while I lay in the gutter. When we lost the house, you didn't leave me. And now that my health is failing, you are still here by my side. You know what?"

"What?" she replied, as her heart began to fill with pride.

"I think you're bad luck!"

 A newlywed couple were visiting friends when the subject of having children came up. The young bride said she wanted to have three children, while the happy new groom said two children would be more than enough for him.

They then preceded to have a heated discussion of this discrepancy for more than 30 minutes when the husband finally put an abrupt end to the conversation by saying he would simply go out and get a vasectomy after the birth of their second child.

Without a moment's hesitation, his bride retorted, "Well, all I can say is I hope you treat the third one like he or she was your own."

 A husband, trying to prove to his wife that women talk too much, showed her a new scientific study which concluded that men use about 15,000 words a day, and women use 30,000.

The wife thought about this for awhile and finally said, "The reason women have to use twice as many words as men is because men never listen to women and we always have to repeat what we say."

Looking stunned, the husband said, "What?"

 A man left for work one Friday afternoon. But being payday, instead of going home like a good husband, he spent the whole weekend partying with his friends and blowing his entire paycheck. When he finally arrived home of Sunday night, he was confronted by a very angry wife who harangued him for a good hour about his disappearing act.

Finally his wife stopped yelling at him and simply said, "How would you like it if you didn't see me for two or three whole days?"

"That would be just fine with me," said the husband.

Monday went by and he didn't see his wife. Tuesday went by and he didn't see his wife. Wednesday went by and he still didn't see his wife. Come Thursday, though, the swelling finally began to subside and he was able to see her a little out of the corner of one of his eyes.

Finally, here are ten fatal things for a husband to say to his wife when she is pregnant:

1. "Honey, I finished all the Oreo's."
2. "You know, just looking at her, you'd never guess Pamela Lee had a baby."
3. "Well, couldn't they induce labor? The 25th is the Super Bowl."
4. "You know, if you gain another 10 pounds, I think you better start looking for that Richard Simmons guy to come through the door."
5. "Whoa! For a minute there, I thought I woke up next to Willard Scott."
6. "Are your ankles supposed to look like that?"
7. "Get your own ice cream."
8. "Maybe we should name the baby Rebecca, after my secretary?"
9. "Wow, I don't think Hoover Dam can retain that much water."
10. "You don't have the guts to pull that trigger."

SPORTS INSIDER

By Rich Novoa

The Oakland Raiders opened their training camp in Napa last Friday with a few new and old faces as they prepare to make a serious run at the Super Bowl. The Raiders haven't won back-to-back AFC West titles in 25 years. The talk of being football's winningest team goes back to the 1972-76 seasons when Oakland won five straight titles while winning 80 percent of their games (55-13-2).

This season Jerry Rice and Charlie Garner jumped on BART from San Francisco to cross the bay to don the famous silver and black uniforms and Oakland also signed Tracy Armstrong away from Miami to shore up the defensive line. The Raiders used their first round pick in the draft to select safety Derrick Gibson to assist Charles Woodson, Anthony Dorsett, Eric Allen and Marcus Pope in the secondary. The Raiders will have 21 out of 22 starters returning from the 2000 division winning squad but the Silver and Black attack is not getting any younger! Rice is 39 years old, Tim Brown is 35, Rich Gannon, Eric Allen and Tracy Armstrong are also hitting 36 years of age.

Coach Jon Gruden will be pressed by owner Al Davis to win the whole enchilada this season. The Silver and Black attack will have a potent offensive with running backs Garner, Jon Ritchie and Tyrone Wheatley sharing the load. The wide receivers are extremely dangerous with Rice, Brown and James Jett sprinting down field. The Raiders will probably pass on receiver Andre Rison after he missed his mandatory drug test. The only weakness I see on the team is the back-up position at quarterback. Can back-up Bobby Hoying do the job? Only time will tell but Hoying will need more playing time than he got last season when the Super Bowl Champion Ravens embarrassed him in the conference title game which was the only game he threw a pass in last season.

The Raiders will be in Napa for about 4 weeks before they head to Mexico City to tackle the Dallas Cowboys in an exhibition game. The Raiders open the season on September 9th in Kansas City. Oakland's home opener is set for September 16th against the New York Jets.

The Giants (52-48) are still stuck in third place in the West Division trailing the Dodgers and Diamondbacks by 5 games. The Giants still have a week to decide if they want to bring in another starting pitcher to make a last run at Arizona. Colorado's Pedro Astacio has been rumored going to the Giants. The Diamondbacks came to San Francisco last weekend and pounded the Giants pitchers but the Giants are still in the playoff hunt. The Giants will hit the road this weekend for a crucial four game series in Arizona. Channel 31 will televise the Friday night (7 p.m.) and Sunday day game (1:35 p.m.).

The Oakland A's (53-46) are playing great ball but just can't make up any ground on the Seattle Mariners (73-27). The A's only chance at post season play will be the wild card spot. The A's will be at home this week against the Minnesota Twins and Kansas City Royals. The Twins fell out of first place in the Central Division and are also eyeing that wild card spot.

The River Cats final return to the friendly confines of Raley Field after a long 12 game road trip. The Gatos will host the Memphis Redbirds in a four game series starting on Tuesday night. The Nashville Sounds will close the home stand with another four game set starting on Saturday night (7: p.m.- Fireworks night). Tickets are still available by calling (916) 371-HITS.

The 35th USA Track & Field National Junior Olympics are in town at CSUS Hornet Field from July 25 to July 29th. Daily tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for children 12 and under. More than 6,000 athlete's aged 8 to 18 are competing in the Jr. Olympics, which end Sunday.

Last but not least the Sacramento Kings signed Chris Webber to the second highest basketball contract in the history of the NBA. Yes, C-Webb will earn more the Shaquille O'Neal. Webber signed a seven-year deal worth $122.7 million second only to Kevin Garnett's six-year, $126 million contract he signed in 1998.

Last season, Webber became the first Kings player in a quarter-century to make the All-NBA team. He finished sixth in scoring (27.1), seventh in rebounding (11.1) and 10th in minutes per game (40.5), shooting 48% from the field on the NBA's highest-scoring team. Go Kings!

See ya next week!

Mumui named All Star

A River City High School football player will play for the "South" teamof the 2001 Optimist All-Star Football Game Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Hughes Stadium.

Ron Mumui, a 6' 3", 225-pound defensive lineman, will represent the Raiders among the two teams made up of All-Stars from throughout the Sacramento area.

Mumui will attend Sierra College.

Tickets are $8, with kids age six and under admitted free.

CITY OF WEST SACRAMENTO
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT
ENGINEERING DIVISION
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
FEDERAL AID PROJECT NUMBER: RPL-5447 (016)
STATE NUMBER: 03-YOL-0-WSAC
CITY WORK ORDER NUMBER: 1720

PORT CENTER AREA PAVEMENT REHABILITATION PROJECT

will be received at the Department of Community Development, 1951 South River Road, West Sacramento, California 95691, until 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 7, 2001 at which time they will be publicly opened and read in the Conference Room at said address.

General Work Description: The work generally consists of the rehabilitation of the paved roadway by removing existing street section and reconstructing with new structural section as shown on the plans. The work shall also include the removal and replacement of defective curb and gutter and the installation of new storm drain inlet for the elimination of drainage problems.

In addition, the work shall include the replacement of any pavement, sidewalk, curb and gutter or public and private improvements removed or damaged as a consequence of the execution of this Contract, as well as all necessary traffic control.

This Contract has a completion time of Fifty (50) Working Days.

This project has a goal of 10 percent Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) participation.

No pre-bid meeting is scheduled for this project.

At the time this Contract is awarded, the Contractor shall possess a Class A General Engineering Contractor's License issued by the State of California.

This Contract is subject to State contract nondiscrimination and compliance requirements pursuant to Government Code, Section 12990.

Plans and specifications, and proposal forms for bidding this project can only be obtained at the office of the Director of Community Development of the CITY OF WEST SACRAMENTO, located at 1951 South River Road, West Sacramento, California 95691 (telephone 916-373-5854). A non-refundable payment of $25.00 for each set is required if picked up, and $35.00 if mailed.

No bid will be accepted unless it is made on the Proposal Form provided in these Special Provisions.

Bids are required for the entire work described herein.

Each proposal must be accompanied by cash, a cashier's check, certified check or bid bond, executed on the prescribed form, in an amount not less than ten (10) percent of the total bid price payable to the City of West Sacramento. Such guarantee will be forfeited should the bidder to whom the contract is awarded fail to enter into the contract.

Bidders are hereby notified that in accordance with the provisions of Government Code Section 4590, securities may be substituted for any monies which the City may withhold pursuant to the terms of this Contract to ensure performance. Such securities, if deposited by the owner, whose decision on valuation of the securities shall be final. Securities eligible for investment under this provision shall be limited to those listed in Section 22300 of the Public Contract Code and section 16430 of the Government Code.

The Department of Community Development hereby notifies all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that in any contract entered into pursuant to the advertisement, disadvantaged business enterprises will be afforded full opportunity to submit bids in response to this invitation and will not be discriminated against on the grounds of race, color, or national origin in consideration for an award.

Pursuant to Section 1773 of the Labor Code, the general prevailing rate of wages in the City in which the work is done has been determined by the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations. For bidding purposes these wage rate publications may be examined at the offices described above where project plans, Special Provisions, and proposal forms may be obtained. Future effective wage rates which have been predetermined and are on file with the Department of Industrial Relations are referenced but not printed in said publication.

Minimum wage rates for this project as predetermined by the Secretary of Labor are set forth in the Special Provisions. If there is a difference between the minimum wage rates predetermined by the Secretary of Labor and the prevailing wage rates determined by the Department of Industrial Relations for similar classifications of labor, the Contractor and his subcontractors shall pay not less than the higher wage rate. The Community Development Department will not accept lower State wage rates not specifically included in the Federal wage determinations. This includes "helper" (or other classifications based on hours of experience) or any other classification not appearing in the Federal wage determinations. Where Federal wage determinations do not contain the State wage rate determination otherwise available for use by the Contractor and subcontractors, the Contractor and subcontractors shall pay not less than the Federal minimum wage rate which most closely approximates the duties of the employees in question.

Attention is directed to the provisions of Public Contracts Code Section 5101 and following, concerning relief of bidders and in particular to the requirements therein that if the bidder claims a mistake was made in his bid, the bidder shall give the City written notice, within five (5) calendar days after the opening of bids of the alleged mistake, specifying in the notice, in detail, how the mistake occurred.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to determine which proposal is, in its judgment, the lowest responsive bid of a responsible bidder and which proposal should be accepted in the best interests of the City.

OPINION

News-Ledger Editorial:

Bits & bites

Principals have yet to return calls from the News-Ledger, but the strong rumor is that Jim Gray and his Coldwell Banker office are in escrow to buy 2101 Stone Blvd. from a partnership involving Frank Ramos and 'Buzz' Oates.

The building, of course, was West Sacramento's original city hall – at least until it was flooded by vandals in late 1999.

Before that, it was the former "World Trade Center" building of the Port of Sacramento beginning in the 1960s. When West Sacramento incorporated in 1987, the Port then rented space for city hall to the new city, and later sold the building to the city and moved out. The city soon sold the property to Oates and Ramos, but agreed to continue leasing space for city hall until a new city hall was built. The vandals changed the city's plans.

The store's monument sign at the corner, with its scrolling advertisements in red lights, does not. Maybe such a light is appropriate for downtown, but let's hope the city's design guidelines keep such signs out of the city's future neighborhood shopping centers.

The claim by the West Sacramento Press to be "the official newspaper of record for the City of West Sacramento" has been misleading for a few years now, as the News-Ledger has shared the duty of bringing you the city's public notices. Since July 1, though, that claim has lapsed into a simple falsehood. The News-Ledger is currently West Sacramento's only "newspaper of record."

City staffers have explained to residents of Arlington Oaks that the city's redevelopment agency could not foot the bill to connect the subdivision to local sewer lines because "the Yolo County Board of Supervisors chose not to include Arlington Oaks in the redevelopment project area when it was adopted by the Board of Supervisors in 1986."

That statement neglects to mention that West Sacramento consciously chose to use the very same boundaries when the city formed in 1987.

Ironically, the county and city both thought it wise to include open space and farmland within the redevelopment area, even though the state's redevelopment laws were intended to help "blighted" projects which need to be "re"-developed. Both the city and county were overeager to promote planned industrial development on these lands.

Help the West Sacramento Chamber of Commerce pick a theme for this year's Community Day Parade and win a $50 gift certificate from Toys-R-Us

This year's Community Day Parade will be held on Community Day (the first Saturday in October), October 6, 2001. The parade will have a slightly new route, and a new starting time of 10 a.m..

The parade will end at the site of the 2nd annual West Sacramento Education Carnival, where there will be plenty of food, fun and education. Also scheduled for Community Day is a Historic Festival celebrating West Sacramento and Yolo County's past.

So here is what we need. We invite children under 12 to send in their idea for a theme for this year's Community Day Parade. The inventor of the winning theme will win a $50 gift certificate from Toys-R-Us. If more than one person submits the same winning theme, the winner will be drawn from the winning theme entries. For an entry form to be in the parade, call the Chamber office at 371-7042. Deadline for the theme contest is August 10, 2001. All decisions are final and there will only be one grand prize awarded. Entries must be submitted in writing, and must have parent or guardian permission.

HERE IS A PLEASANT LITTLE GAME that will give you a message every day. It's a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner and check one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

July 19, 5:55 a.m.

Police responded to a possible burglary on Jefferson Blvd. Officers found evidence that suspects had entered through the roof vent of a business and moved items around. They could not immediately determine if anything was taken.

July 19, 10:46 a.m.

The manager of a Stillwater Rd. business reported that two company gas cards had been taken, and were being used at various locations to buy gasoline.

July 19, 11:30 p.m.

Officers responded to a hit and run vehicle accident in which a car ran into six parked vehicles. The suspect struck one of those cars sideways, causing it to crush a pedestrian against another car. The victim suffered a compound fracture of the thighbone. An officer located the suspect vehicle on 5th St. and took the juvenile female driver into custody. She said she had been attempting to flee someone who had been assaulting her in the vehicle. She was cited and released to the custody of her mother.

An officer approached three suspects in a vehicle, and saw them toss a package out. On Michigan Blvd., officers took possession of a found duffle bag which contained clothes, bullets and a scale.

July 22, 3:58 a.m.

An officer detained a 25-year old at West Capitol and Sycamore. The suspect threw a glass smoking pipe to the ground, and was holding a knife. He had 4.3 grams of marijuana and 8.7 grams of marijuana in his possession, and two outstanding misdemeanor warrants. He was arrested.

July 21, 1:44 a.m.

A man left a West Capitol nightclub after a dispute with security guards, and got into a traffic accident with an oncoming vehicle. He then ran from the scene and hid in a nearby water canal, refusing to come out for police. Officers went into the water to retrieve him.

Dear Diane...

By Diane Verhøeven

DEAR DIANE:

I'm pregnant, and I've decided to go with a midwife. I'll still go to an OB too, but I like the natural approach that midwives take. Another friend had a very good experience with hers.

My parents and sister are giving me heck for it, though, and think midwives are witch doctors. They're sure not helping with the whole process by giving me all this extra stress.

How do I get them to understand why I'm doing this?

— TENSE IN TULSA

DEAR TENSE:

The first thing you need to realize is that your family's motives are well-intentioned and guided by love and concern for the health and safety of yourself and your baby. They don't mean to cause you stress. They just want to make sure you take every precaution available.

What you might want to do is have them sit down with you and the midwife as soon as possible. Let them get to know her as well as you have. Allow them the time and freedom to voice their concerns and to have those concerns addressed by the midwife. This won't be a time to be confrontational or judgmental. You want your parents and sister to be as comfortable and well-informed as you are.

You also need to let your family know that you are taking steps to ensure that the birthing process will be as safe as humanly possible. Let your family know that a doctor will be nearby should any complications arise. Wanting a "natural" childbirth is fine and dandy, and quite quaint, but if something (God forbid) should go wrong, you'll want the best medical care modern science can provide.

If, after all that, your parents and sister are still giving you grief, you might just have to put your foot down and tell them that you've made your decision and they will just have to respect it. It is, after all, your child — not theirs.

Besides, after you have the baby, all this hubbub will be forgotten in the mad rush of taking baby pictures, buying little booties and baby clothes, and the joy of being new grandparents or a new aunt. Congratulations and good luck.

Commentary:

West Sac's Christians join together

From Pastor Gary Clements
First Baptist Church

The quarterly city-wide church praise and prayer rally was held again this past month at the First Baptist Church (15th and Delaware), and was yet another wonderful opportunity for all Christians in the West Sacramento church community to join together for fellowship and praise in worship of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. Well over 300 people were in attendance and young and old alike thoroughly enjoyed being led in singing and praise by the worship team from River of Life Community Church (presently meeting at River City High School).

Each of the quarterly rallies is led by a different group of worship leaders from one of the participating churches, with the next scheduled meeting to be September 9th at 6:00 p.m., also to be held at First Baptist with the worship team from Southport Community Church (formerly West Sac Church of the Nazarene, now meeting on Industrial Boulevard west of the Palamidessi bridge) leading in praise and worship.

Everyone in the community is invited to these rallies, whether or not your particular church is presently involved. Sponsoring churches are currently: Anna Street Baptist Church; First Baptist Church; First Southern Baptist Church; Horizon Christian Fellowship; Joy Christian Ministries; New Wine Ministries; River of Life Community Church; Southport Community Church; and Trinity Presbyterian Church. We hope to see you all in September!
